WARNING

PRIME MINISTER'S SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIP SCHEME (PMSSS) for J&K STUDENTS

It has been reported that some institutions / universities are making false promises of PMSSS scholarships and offering admission in their own institutions / universities to the candidates who have been already allocated seats in other colleges through counseling and even to those who have not been allocated seats through counseling under PMSSS.

It is therefore warned that any candidate who is taking admission in any institution other than institution allotted by AICTE through counseling is not eligible for scholarship under the scheme and AICTE is not responsible and will not be able to pay scholarship under any circumstances.

If the institutions / universities who are admitting candidates on their own in the name of PMSSS, it will be the responsibility of the institutions / universities to take care of their education, lodging & boarding at their own expense. All such candidates if got trapped are requested to ask their universities of their promise in writing about taking care of free education by the University or make their own arrangements.
